The University's Careers Service has a new termcard of its 200+ events in Michaelmas. Don't miss out – decide which ones suit your areas of interest.

Remember, it is useful at all stages through your life, while looking for internships, applying for post-graduation work, or even when you're alumni and looking to figure out your next career move.

50 years of women at St Edmund's!

2019/20 marks 50 years of women at St Edmund's. Significantly, St Edmund's became co-ed before all of the all-male Colleges, a claim to fame and something to be proud of!

To that end a mini-website has been created which will develop over the course of the year.

In particular, we are looking for women (students, Fellows, staff) who may be interested in writing about their time at St Edmund's, what they've been working on, where they're heading. We have already an exemplar story, of Margie Geib Wilkinson, the first woman to matriculate at St Edmund's – well worth a read!

If you might be interested in sharing your story, or finding out more, please do get in touch on press@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk
