Weekly news update

See below the news updates for this week. As ever, if you have any news/stories, get in touch on press@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk.

Please do update us on anything you wish to share with the wider community. Sharing is caring!

Annette Elsmore, RIP

We were sad to be informed that Mrs Annette Elsmore, widow of former Emeritus Fellow Dr Bruce Elsmore, passed away on Friday 21 February.

Take It From Her – Podcast

Take It From Her explores the critical issues for gender equality today, founded by 2 St Edmund's students.

Co-hosts Sally Patterson and Isobel Duxfield speak to women making waves in their fields, who can offer a unique perspective on contemporary local and global issues. What do they think we should all be thinking about?

(Apologies for the problem with the link last week. This one should work!)

Are you a student wanting to earn some money?

In July, St Edmund's will be running a Telephone Campaign to connect alumni with the College, update them on how things are going, and raise donations to improve College for students.

To do this, the Development Office is recruiting students to make the calls, share experiences of College (present and past), and help us in our work.

Any questions, send an e-mail to development@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk. But other than that - apply!

Scrap paper collection for Centre 33

Tania Clarke (PhD, Psychology & Education) is collecting coloured scrap paper including magazines, greetings cards, patterned wrapping paper, brochures etc. for a young carers group she runs at local children's charity, Centre 33. The kids that come to the group are aged 8-11 and care for parents/siblings with a mental and/or physical disability. Any donations can be placed in the green crate under the table in the CR (see above). The scrap paper will be used for collaging, scrapbooking and arts & crafts activities. Tania will sort through the content to make sure it's age appropriate, and anything other than newspapers is welcome.

Thank you in advance for any donations!
