

St Edmund's College

Weekly news update

See below the news updates for this week. As ever, if you have any news/stories, get in touch on press@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk.

Please do update us on anything you wish to share with the wider community. Sharing is caring!

Are you a student wanting to earn some money?

The Development Office is recruiting students to help carry out our telephone campaign. You will be paid £10 an hour and meals are included. All for connecting with people about the College and shared interests, while hopefully raising money for current and future students.

Any questions, send an e-mail to development@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk. But other than that – apply!

Annette Elsmore – Requiem Mass

As many of you will have already heard, Annette Elsmore, Bruce Elsmore's widow, died peacefully in her sleep in the early hours of Saturday morning.

Though she hadn't been noticeably ill, she had begun to feel the burden of Bruce's absence. Bruce, the College's Senior Fellow died in August last.

Annette and he and their family have been part of the fabric of St Edmund's for many, many years and both regularly came to Mass every Sunday in the Chapel. The altar in the Chapel was their donation, as were many other items of furniture.

But above all else, they contributed to the College and Chapel community by their loyal and devoted presence and their palpable love of St Edmund's in all aspects of its life, not least its Catholic origins and heritage. May they rest in peace and rise in glory.

Annette's Requiem Mass will take place in the Chapel on Monday 16 March at 11.00am, followed by a private, family burial in Barton churchyard.

Scrap paper collection for Centre 33

Tania Clarke (PhD, Psychology & Education) is collecting coloured scrap paper including magazines, greetings cards, patterned wrapping paper, brochures etc. for a young carers group she runs at local children's charity, Centre 33. The kids that come to the group are aged 8-11 and care for parents/siblings with a mental and/or physical disability. Any donations can be placed in the green crate under the table in the CR (see above). The scrap paper will be used for collaging, scrapbooking and arts & crafts activities. Tania will sort through the content to make sure it's age appropriate, and anything other than newspapers is welcome.

Thank you in advance for any donations!
